

Conditional Site Plan approval For RIC Energy

The following items must be completed before the start of construction:

- Town Board approval of RIC Certificate of Liability Insurance
- Finalization of SEQRA by the Planning Board
- Receipt of opinion from Albany County Planning Board

The following items must be completed before the RIC project begins actual operation:

- Town Board approval of RIC reclamation bond
- Completion of PILOT agreements with all involved taxing jurisdictions
- Installation of Knox box and any other safety requirements requested by the Knox Fire Department
- Issuance of a Building Permit by the Town of Knox Building Inspector.